

Society for Psychophysiological Research

44th Annual Meeting ♦ October 20-24, 2004 ♦ La Fonda Hotel ♦ Santa Fe, New Mexico

Poster Session III

Main Floor ♦ Sweeney Convention Center ♦ Saturday, October 23 ♦ 7:00 p.m.-9:00 p.m.

Poster Schedule:

12:00 noon - 2:00 p.m. Poster Setup
2:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. Posters Available for Viewing
7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. Poster Session Open, Authors Present
9:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m. Dismantle Posters

Poster Number: 1

ERPS, TASK DEMANDS, AND ALCOHOLISM WITH AND WITHOUT CONDUCT DISORDER
Peter R. Finn and Martin E. Rickert, Indiana University

Poster Number: 2

TASK COMPLEXITY AND IMPULSIVITY: TIME-FREQUENCY ANALYSES OF ENSEMBLE-AVERAGED ERP SIGNALS
Martin E. Rickert and Peter R. Finn, Indiana University

Poster Number: 3

MOOD AND PULMONARY FUNCTION IN EVERYDAY LIFE OF ASTHMATIC AND NON-ASTHMATIC INDIVIDUALS
Andreas von Leupoldt, Felix Ehnes, and Bernhard Dahme, University of Hamburg

Poster Number: 4

THE APPLICATION OF VIDEO GLASSES FOR PRESENTING SUSTAINED AFFECTIVE PICTURE SERIES
Andreas von Leupoldt, Bettina Hartle-Bremerich, and Bernhard Dahme, University of Hamburg

Poster Number: 5

EFFECTS OF AGING ON THE USE OF SALIENT PROSODY TO CAPTURE ATTENTION TO UNATTENDED SPEECH: EVIDENCE FROM EVENT RELATED BRAIN POTENTIALS
Jing Tian Wang, David Friedman, New York State Psychiatric Institute; Walter Ritter, Nathan Kline Institute for Psychiatric Research; Michael Bersick, and Letecia Latif, New York State Psychiatric Institute

Poster Number: 6

TASK SWITCHING: AN ERP COMPARISON OF STIMULUS- AND RESPONSE-RELATED EFFECTS
Doreen Nessler, New York State Psychiatric Institute; Ray Johnson, Jr., Queens College; Michael Bersick, and David Friedman, New York State Psychiatric Institute

Poster Number: 7

TWO PRESENTATIONS ARE BETTER THAN ONE: ELDERLY BENEFIT BEHAVIORALLY BUT AGE-RELATED ERP DIFFERENCES REMAIN
Doreen Nessler, New York State Psychiatric Institute; Ray Johnson, Jr., Queens College; Michael Bersick, and David Friedman, New York State Psychiatric Institute

Poster Number: 8

AIRPUFF STARTLE PROBES: AN EFFICACIOUS AND LESS AVERSIVE ALTERNATIVE TO WHITE-NOISE
Shmuel Lissek, National Institute of Mental Health; Johanna M.P. Baas, Utrecht University; Daniel S. Pine, Kaebah S. Orme, Sharone R. Dvir, Monique S. Nugent, Emily Rosenberger, Elizabeth Rawson, and Christian Grillon, National Institute of Mental Health

Poster Number: 9

EFFECTS OF EMOTIONAL REGULATION ON STARTLE POTENTIATION TO THE THREAT OF ELECTRIC SHOCKS
Shmuel Lissek, Kaebah S. Orme, and Christian Grillon, National Institute of Mental Health

Poster Number: 10

TRAIT ANXIETY AND RETENTION OF AVERSIVE CONDITIONING
Shmuel Lissek, Sharone R. Dvir, National Institute of Mental Health; Johanna M.P. Baas, Utrecht University; and Christian Grillon, National Institute of Mental Health

Poster Number: 11

FEAR CONDITIONING IN A PATIENT WITH BILATERAL HIPPOCAMPUS INFARCTION: IMPAIRED TRACE BUT RETAINED DELAY CONDITIONING
Almut I. Weike, Alexander Khaw, Alexander Heinrich, Alexander Dressel, Christof Kessler, and Alfons O. Hamm, University of Greifswald

Poster Number: 1 2

TRACKING AFFECTIVE ASSOCIATIVE LEARNING WITH MEASURES OF LIKING, FACIAL ELECTROMYOGRAPHY, AND PREFERENTIAL LOOKING

K. Carrie Armel, Stanford University; Carmen Pulido, San Diego State University; John Wixted, and Andrea A. Chiba, University of California, San Diego

Poster Number: 1 3

FACIAL EMG DISCRIMINATES GAIN AND LOSS ANTICIPATION AND OUTCOME IN A MONETARY INCENTIVE DELAY TASK

Lisbeth Nielsen, Brian Knutson, Matt Kaufman, Lauren Weinstein, and Laura L. Carstensen, Stanford University

Poster Number: 1 4

INCREASED FRONTAL ERP ACTIVATION FOR EXTERNALIZING CHILDREN IN RESPONSE TO NEGATIVE FEEDBACK

Connie Lamm, Marc D. Lewis, Jim Stieben, Philip D. Zelazo, University of Toronto; and Isabela Granic, Hospital for Sick Children

Poster Number: 1 5

ERP INDICES OF EMOTION REGULATION IN ANTISOCIAL CHILDREN: A TREATMENT OUTCOME STUDY

Jim Stieben, Marc D. Lewis, University of Toronto; Isabella Granic, Hospital for Sick Children and University of Toronto; Connie Lamm, and Philip D. Zelazo, University of Toronto

Poster Number: 1 6

EMOTIONAL EFFECTS ON CORTICAL MECHANISMS OF SELF-REGULATION IN PRESCHOOL CHILDREN

Marc D. Lewis, Rebecca Todd, University of Toronto; and Michael Honsberger, University of Guelph

Poster Number: 1 7

AFFECTIVE MODULATION OF SOMATOSENSORY EVOKED POTENTIALS IN CHRONIC PAIN PATIENTS

Pedro Montoya, Carolina Sitges, University of Balearic Islands; Raúl Izquierdo, Manuel García-Herrera, Dolores Collado, Juana Gonzalvo, and Felicidad Molina, Medical Unit for Disability Assessment, Social Security Agency, Palma

Poster Number: 1 8

INFLUENCE OF SOCIAL SUPPORT ON SOMATOSENSORY EVOKED FIELDS AND PAIN THRESHOLDS IN CHRONIC PAIN PATIENTS

Pedro Montoya, University of Balearic Islands; Wolfgang Larbig, Christoph Braun, Hubert Preissl, University of Tübingen; and Niels Birbaumer, University of Tübingen and University of Trento

Poster Number: 1 9

CHANGES IN BRAIN ACTIVITY ASSOCIATED WITH PREDICTION ERRORS DURING AVERSIVE CONDITIONING IN HUMANS

Jose Javier Campos Bueno, Universidad Complutense; Carolina Sitges, and Pedro Montoya, University of Balearic Islands

Poster Number: 2 0

LEFT HEMISPHERES DOMINANCE IN SPEECH DETERMINED BY LONG-TERM MEMORY TRACES NOT BY PHYSICAL SOUND FEATURES: AN MEG STUDY

Yury Shtyrov and Friedemann Pulvermuller, MRC Cognition and Brain Sciences Unit

Poster Number: 2 1

MEG CORRELATES OF MEANING ACCESS TO ACTION WORDS

F. Pulvermuller, Y. Shtyrov, MRC Cognition and Brain Sciences Unit; and R.J. Ilmoniemi, Helsinki Central Hospital and Nexstim Inc.

Poster Number: 2 2

N400 MEASURES OF AUDITORY WORD REPETITION AND TRANSLATION PRIMING IN BILINGUALS

Natalie A. Phillips, Concordia University; Denise Klein, McGill University; Chloe de Boysson, Universite Bordeaux 1; and Julie Mercier, Concordia University

Poster Number: 2 3

SEMANTIC PRIMING WITHIN AND ACROSS LANGUAGES: AN AUDITORY ERP STUDY IN BILINGUALS

Natalie A. Phillips, Julie Mercier, Concordia University; and Denise Klein, McGill University

Poster Number: 2 4

CONTINGENT NEGATIVE VARIATION IN PREADOLESCENTS: GENDER CORRELATES

R.T. Pivik and R.A. Dykman, Arkansas Children's Nutrition Center

Poster Number: 2 5

ENDOGENOUS BLINKS AND THE CONTINGENT NEGATIVE VARIATION: SYNERGISTIC INTERACTIONS

R.T. Pivik and R.A. Dykman, Arkansas Children's Nutrition Center

Poster Number: 2 6

THE EFFECTS OF EATING BREAKFAST ON THE CONTINGENT NEGATIVE VARIATION RESPONSE IN PREADOLESCENTS: GENDER CORRELATES

R.T. Pivik and R.A. Dykman, Arkansas Children's Nutrition Center

Poster Number: 2 7

THINKING OUTSIDE THE BREAST: ERP COMPARISONS OF SPEECH STIMULI PROCESSING IN 3-MONTH OLD BREAST AND MILK-FED INFANTS

R.T. Pivik, Arkansas Children's Nutrition Center; H. Jing, Arkansas Children's Nutrition Center and University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences; J.M. Gilchrist, Arkansas Children's Nutrition Center and USDA/ARS; and R.A. Dykman, Arkansas Children's Nutrition Center

Poster Number: 2 8

ELECTROPHYSIOLOGICAL AND HEMODYNAMIC RESPONSES TO REWARD EXPECTATION

Geoffrey F. Potts, Laura E. Martin, and Phil Burton, Rice University

Poster Number: 29

PUPIL DILATION TO EMOTIONAL WORDS IN PEDIATRIC AFFECTIVE DISORDER

Jennifer S. Silk, Greg J. Siegle, Ronald E. Dahl, and Jennifer L. Jakubcak, University of Pittsburgh

Poster Number: 30

ESTIMATING THE SENSITIVITY OF RESPIRATORY RSA MODULATION: THE ROLE OF VOLUME COMPENSATION WITH CHANGING RESPIRATION RATE

Thomas Ritz and Bernhard Dahme, University of Hamburg

Poster Number: 31

EFFECTS OF EROTIC PICTURE VIEWING AND EXPRESSION OF ANGER ON CARDIAC VAGAL TONE: COMPARISON OF THREE INDICES OF RESPIRATORY SINUS ARRHYTHMIA

Thomas Ritz, Miriam Thoens, and Bernhard Dahme, University of Hamburg

Poster Number: 32

IS THE ONE PROBE OR MULTIPLE PROBE P300-BASED CONCEALED INFORMATION TEST MORE SENSITIVE?

J. Peter Rosenfeld, Eveline Shue, and Erika Singer, Northwestern University

Poster Number: 33

P300 AND STIMULUS CATEGORIZATION: 2+1=1+1? OBJECTIVE PROBABILITY AND TASK DEMAND MATTER TOO

J. Peter Rosenfeld, Julianne Biroshak, Melissa Kleschen, and Kyle Smith, Northwestern University

Poster Number: 34

STROOP EFFECT DOES NOT CORRELATE WITH P300 LATENCY WITH ODDBALL(RARE) TARGET NEUTRAL AND INCONRUENT STIMULI

J. Peter Rosenfeld and Katieann Skogsberg, Northwestern University

Poster Number: 35

USING MEMORY OF TEMPORAL PATTERNS TO EXECUTE ANTICIPATORY MOVEMENT: A MEG COHERENCE STUDY

Claudia D. Tesche, Tim Martin, and Jon M. Houck, University of New Mexico

Poster Number: 36

MEASURES AND MODELS FOR ESTIMATING AND PREDICTING COGNITIVE FATIGUE

Leonard J. Trejo, Rebekah Kochavi, NASA Ames Research Center; Karla Kubitz, Towson University; Leslie D. Montgomery, Roman Rosipal, and Bryan Matthews, NASA Ames Research Center

Poster Number: 37

WHEN THE ORBICULARIS OCULI RESPONSE TO A STARTLING STIMULUS IS ZERO, THE VERTICAL EOG CAN SHOW SOMETHING HAPPENING. ZERO IS NOT NOTHING

Allison M. Waters, Griffith University and Edward M. Ornitz, University of California, Los Angeles

Poster Number: 38

HEAD MOVEMENT BEHAVIOR DURING CONVERSATION: PHYSIOLOGICAL EVIDENCE OF THEIR COMMUNICATIVE FUNCTION

Andreas Altorfer, Marie-Louise Kaesermann, Sibylle Schwander, and Othmar Wuermle, University Hospital of Clinical Psychiatry

Poster Number: 39

ORBITAL FRONTAL CORTEX, THE REGULATION OF EMOTION, AND DIURNAL VARIATION IN CORTISOL: EVIDENCE FROM BRAIN ELECTRICAL TOMOGRAPHY ANALYSIS

Katherine M. Putnam, Boston VA Healthcare System; Diego A. Pizzagalli, Harvard University; Diane C. Gooding, Ned H. Kalin, and Richard J. Davidson, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Poster Number: 40

EFFECTS OF PAVLOVIAN CONDITIONING WITH TRAUMA-RELEVANT CUES IN POSTTRAUMATIC STRESS DISORDER

Michèle Wessa and Herta Flor, Central Institute of Mental Health

Poster Number: 41

HEARING YOUR FEELINGS - AN FMRI STUDY OF EMOTIONAL PROCESSING IN TINNITUS

Herta Flor, Maren Struve, Eugen Diesch, University of Heidelberg; and Manfred Hülse, University of Heidelberg

Poster Number: 42

ANTICIPATING STRESS - SUBJECTIVE, AUTONOMIC AND ENDOCRINOLOGICAL CORRELATES

Christiane Hermann, Stephan Vogl, University of Heidelberg; and Athanasios Maras, Central Institute of Mental Health

Poster Number: 43

TEST-RETEST RELIABILITY OF EVENT-RELATED POTENTIALS IN EPISODIC RETRIEVAL IN OLDER PERSONS.

S. Blanchet, Laval University; D. Lorrain, Institut Universitaire de Gériatrie de Sherbrooke and Université de Sherbrooke; S. Belleville, Institut Universitaire de Gériatrie de Montréal and Université de Montréal; and K. Veilleux, Institut Universitaire de Gériatrie de Sherbrooke and Université de Sherbrooke

Poster Number: 44

FINGER PULSE WAVEFORM LENGTH IN THE DETECTION OF CONCEALED INFORMATION

Eitan Elaad, College of Judea and Samaria and Gershon Ben-Shakhar, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Poster Number: 45

INTERNALIZING AND EXTERNALIZING PROBLEMS PREDICT AFFECT-SPECIFIC CARDIOVASCULAR REACTIVITY IN CHILDREN

Paul D. Hastings, Concordia University

Poster Number: 46

RISK FOR DISINHIBITED PSYCHOPATHOLOGY: ELECTRODERMAL RESPONSE MODULATION AND ITS (SPECIFIC?) RELATION TO SUBSTANCE USE DISORDERS

Jeanette E. Taylor, Florida State University

Poster Number: 47

BETWEEN-SUBJECTS MANIPULATION OF CRIME-TEST TIME IN A P300 GUILTY KNOWLEDGE TEST SUGGESTS THE RELEVANCE OF MOTIVATION RATHER THAN MEMORIAL DIFFICULTY

Isato Furumitsu, University of East Asia and John J. Furedy, University of Toronto

Poster Number: 48

END-STAGE COGNITIVE IMPAIRMENT IN HIV-POSITIVE DRUG MISUSERS IS ACCENTUATED FOR PERSONS WITH APOE ISOFORM E4

Vincent Egan, Kirsten McKenzie, Glasgow Caledonian University; Jeanne Bell, Edinburgh University; Ann Chiswick, Western General Hospital; and Ray Brettle, Edinburgh University

Poster Number: 49

THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN PREPULSE INHIBITION AND PERCEIVED INTENSITY OF THE BLINK-ELICITING STIMULUS: STIMULUS INTENSITY AND LEAD INTERVAL EFFECTS

David L. Neumann, Griffith University; Larissa Van Beurden, and Ottmar V. Lipp, University of Queensland

Poster Number: 50

GAMMA-BAND SYNCHRONY INDEXES DISORDERED PERCEPTION AND COGNITION IN SCHIZOPHRENIA

Kevin M. Spencer, Paul G. Nestor, Ruth Perlmutter, Margaret A. Niznikiewicz, Meredith Klump, Melissa Frumin, Martha E. Shenton, and Robert W. McCarley, Harvard Medical School/VA Boston Healthcare System

Poster Number: 51

PSYCHOPHYSIOLOGICAL RESPONSES TO CRIME, APOLOGY, AND RESTITUTION: THE ROLE OF SPIRITUAL COMMITMENT

Charlotte V.O. Witvliet, Scott R. Hinze, Hope College; and Everett L. Worthington, Jr., Virginia Commonwealth University

Poster Number: 52

VIEWING UNPLEASANT PHOTOGRAPHS ELICITED STRONGER FACIAL ELECTROMYOGRAPHIC (EMG) ACTIVITY AT THE LEFT THAN THE RIGHT CORRUGATOR MUSCLE

Sengi Hu, Humboldt State University

Poster Number: 53

ERP CORRELATES OF THE EMOTIONAL MODULATION OF ATTENTION

Tracy A. Dennis, Hunter College, CUNY

Poster Number: 54

ATTENTION PLEASE! HOW BREATHING FACILITATES ATTENTIVE PROCESSING OF VISUAL AND AUDITORY STIMULI

Patrick Gomez and Brigitta Danuser, Institut Universitaire Romand de Santé au Travail

Poster Number: 55

ELECTROPHYSIOLOGICAL EVIDENCE FOR PARALIMBIC ABNORMALITIES IN PSYCHOPATHIC OFFENDERS

Kent A. Kiehl, Institute of Living and Yale University and Peter F. Liddle, University of Nottingham

Poster Number: 56

CHANGES OF PSYCHOPHYSIOLOGICAL CORRELATES OF EMOTIONAL RESPONSES IN PANIC DISORDER PATIENTS DUE TO BEHAVIOURAL TREATMENT

Paul Pauli, University of Würzburg; Christine Amrhein, Silvia Kosterz, University of Tübingen; Lyle E. Bourne, University of Colorado at Boulder; and Georg Wiedemann, Hospital of Psychiatry and Psychotherapy, University of Frankfurt/Main

Poster Number: 57

USING A SECOND LANGUAGE: SEMANTIC PRIMING EFFECTS ON THE N400

Georg Stenberg, Kristianstad University; Mikael Johansson, Saarland University; and Ingmar Rosén, Lund University

Poster Number: 58

AN ERP STUDY ON THE RECOGNITION OF THE ERROR OF A HYPOTHESIS IN A RULE DISCOVERY TASK

Nobuyoshi Iwaki, Kyushu Lutheran College; Naohhito Fujiwara, Ryukoku University; Sayaka Nagai, Mikiko Watanabe, and Yukari Noguchi, Kyushu Lutheran College

Poster Number: 59

THE DEVELOPMENT OF ATTENTION AND INHIBITION FROM AGE 6 TO ADULthood; A GO/NOGO ERP STUDY

Lisa M. Jonkman, Maastricht University

Poster Number: 60

LONGITUDINAL CHANGES IN FRONTAL ALPHA ASYMMETRY AND COHERENCE DURING MEDITATION, EYES-CLOSED REST AND COMPUTER TASKS, AFTER 2- 6- AND 12-MONTHS TM PRACTICE

Frederick T. Travis, Maharishi University of Management

Poster Number: 61

MODES OF ATTENTIONAL CAPTURE. AN ERP STUDY ON EXPERIMENTAL VISUAL EXTINCTION

Edmund Wascher, MPI Human Cognitive and Brain Sciences

Poster Number: 62

PROSPECTIVE ASSOCIATION OF EXECUTIVE FUNCTION WITH AMBULATORY BLOOD PRESSURE IS RELATED TO PAIN SENSITIVITY BUT NOT GENERAL IQ

Blaine Ditto, McGill University; Tavis S. Campbell, University of Calgary; and Jean R. Séguin, Université de Montréal

Poster Number: 63

AN EXCITABLE PREPAREDNESS FOR SOCIAL ACCEPTANCE?

Christine Molnar, Alex Mishory, Kaori Yamanaka, Sarah Hill, Zachary Stroud, Emily Grenesko, Samet Kose, Ziad Nahas, and Mark George, Medical University of South Carolina

Poster Number: 64

NEURAL BASIS OF MODULATION OF AUTONOMIC AND IMMUNE RESPONSES UNDER UNCONTROLLABLE STRESS: SIMULTANEOUS MEASUREMENT OF BRAIN ACTIVITY WITH PET AND PERIPHERAL AUTONOMIC AND IMMUNE ACTIVITY

Hideki Ohira, Nagoya University; Tokiko Isowa, Mie Prefectural College of Nursing; Michio Nomura, Japan Society for the Promotion of Science; Naho Ichikawa, Kenta Kimura, Makoto Miyakoshi, Tetsuya Iidaka, Nagoya University; Seisuke Fukuyama, Toshihiko Nakajima, and Jitsuhiro Yamada, Kizawa Memorial Hospital

Poster Number: 65

KERNEL PLS ESTIMATION OF SINGLE-TRIAL EVENT-RELATED POTENTIALS

Roman Rosipal and Leonard J. Trejo, NASA Ames Research Center

Poster Number: 66

ENDOTHELIAL NITRIC OXIDE SYNTHASE GENOTYPES AND TOTAL PERIPHERAL RESISTANCE AT RECOVERY FROM PERCEPTION OF AFFECT AMONG AFRICAN-AMERICANS: GENDER DIFFERENCES

Marcellus M. Merritt, John J. Sollers III, Michele K. Evans, Alan B. Zonderman, Darrell R. Abernethy, and Julian F. Thayer, National Institute on Aging

Poster Number: 67

EFFECTS OF SMOKING/NICOTINE ON ERP AND AUTONOMIC MEASURES DURING PERFORMANCE OF COGNITIVE TASK IN ABSTAINED SMOKERS

Tato M. Sokhadze, Rice University and Walter S. Pritchard, Wake Forest University School of Medicine

Poster Number: 68

KETAMINE-MODERATED SUBJECTIVE AND CARDIOVASCULAR EFFECTS OF NICOTINE IN SMOKERS AND NON-SMOKERS

Verner J. Knott, Royal Ottawa Hospital; Judy F. McIntosh, Anne M. Millar, Derek J. Fisher, Institute of Mental Health Research; and Vadim B. Ilivitsky, Royal Ottawa Hospital

Poster Number: 69

ERPS TO AFFECTIVE PICTURES AND STARTLE PROBES: AROUSING ATTENTION TO AFFECT

Ziya V. Dikman, Stanford University and John J.B. Allen, University of Arizona

Poster Number: 70

PSYCHOPHYSIOLOGICAL RESPONSES TO WAR PICTURES IN VETERANS FROM THE PORTUGUESE COLONIAL WAR

Carlos A. Costa, Hospital Miguel Bombarda; Américo G. Baptista, and Francisco G. Esteves, Universidade Lusófona de Humanidades e Tecnologias

Poster Number: 71

STATE ANXIETY IN REPEATED ASSESSMENT OF NOCICEPTIVE FLEXION REFLEX THRESHOLDS IN YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN

Douglas J. French, Université de Moncton; Christopher R. France, Janis L. France, and Lori Arnott, Ohio University

Poster Number: 72

RIAS-B, MIBI AND CARDIOVASCULAR REACTIVITY
Aurora Torres, University of Alabama, Huntsville

Poster Number: 73

EVENT-RELATED-POTENTIAL (ERP) REFLECTIONS OF TRUE AND INTENTIONAL ERRORS IN A WORD RECOGNITION PARADIGM

Albert Kok, Ben Schmand, Samantha Dooper, and Rebecca van Doornik, University of Amsterdam

Poster Number: 74

IS IMPLICIT EVENT-TIMING RELATED TO ANTICIPATORY HEART RATE DECELERATION?

Riek J.M. Somsen, University of Amsterdam

Poster Number: 75

CHANGES IN HEART RATE AS A FUNCTION OF COUPLE ATTACHMENT STATUS: EVIDENCE FROM A LABORATORY GAZING TASK

David A. Sbarra, University of Arizona; Emilio Ferrer, University of California, Davis; and Cindy Hazan, Cornell University

Poster Number: 76

GREY MATTER REDUCTION AND HALLUCINATIONS IN SCHIZOPHRENIA: AN MRI VOXEL-BASED MORPHOMETRY STUDY

Kenneth Hugdahl, University of Bergen; Gesche Neckelmann, Haukeland University Hospital; and Karsten Specht, University of Bergen

Poster Number: 77

AGE-RELATED CHANGE OF ERP COMPONENTS ELICITED DURING EVALUATIVE CATEGORIZATION

Michael A. Kisley, Stacey Wood, and Christina L. Burrows, University of Colorado at Colorado Springs

Poster Number: 78

PSYCHOPHYSIOLOGICAL VARIABILITY IN CHILDREN WITH ASPERGER'S SYNDROME

Barbara A. Brett-Green, Sarah A. Schoen, Joseph Coll, University of Colorado Health Sciences Center; Roseann C. Schaaf, Thomas Jefferson University; Marianne Reale, Elizabeth Eno, Susan Hepburn, and Lucy J. Miller, University of Colorado Health Sciences Center

Poster Number: 79

VENTILATORY AND CARDIOVASCULAR RESPONSES OF HEALTHY ADULTS TO POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE EMOTIONS

Akio Umezawa, Ryoko Shimizu, University of Fukui; and Kensuke Terai, Kanazawa University

Poster Number: 80

THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN EVENT-RELATED POTENTIALS AND NEUROPSYCHOLOGICAL MEASURES IN TBI AND STROKE PATIENTS

Brigitte Stemmer, University of Montreal; Tobias Leim, Lurija Institute; and Wolfgang Witzke, Kliniken Schmieder

Poster Number: 81

ERP CORRELATES OF THEORY OF MIND REASONING IN ADULTS

Jörg Meinhardt, Petra Barchfeld, Claudia Thoermer, and Beate Sodian, University of Munich

Poster Number: 82

ENDOGENOUS CARDIOVASCULAR AND NEUROENDOCRINE PAIN REGULATORY MECHANISMS ARE INFLUENCED BY GENDER AND CIGARETTE SMOKING

Susan S. Girdler, Michelle Griffin, Herman Naftel, Jessica Fisher, William Maixner, and Kathleen C. Light, University of North Carolina

Poster Number: 83

EFFECTS OF SIMULATED MICROGRAVITY ON CORTICAL ACTIVITY AND COGNITIVE PROCESSES OF ASTRONAUTS

Alessandro Angrilli and Luciano Stegagno, Department of General Psychology

Poster Number: 84

STRESS-INDUCED SUPPRESSION OF HIGH-FREQUENCY HEART RATE VARIABILITY PREDICTS CORONARY AND AORTIC CALCIFICATION IN HEALTHY POST-MENOPAUSAL WOMEN

Peter J. Gianaros, University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine; Kristen Salomon, University of South Florida; Fan Zhou, Daniel Edmundowicz, University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine; Lewis H. Kuller, University of Pittsburgh; and Karen A. Matthews, University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine

Poster Number: 85

EMOTIONAL CONTEXT MODULATES CONTROLLED INFORMATION PROCESSING

Monika Sommer, Katrin Doehnel, Jürgen L. Müller, Peter Frommberger, Thomas Kick, and Göran Hajak, University of Regensburg

Poster Number: 86

RELIABILITY OF CARDIOVASCULAR REACTIVITY TO STRESS: INTERNAL CONSISTENCY

Robert M. Kelsey, Sidney R. Ornduff, and Bruce S. Alpert, University of Tennessee Health Science Center

Poster Number: 87

THE THOUGHT-TRANSLATION-DEVICE (TTD): STATUS AND FUTURE

Niels Birbaumer, University of Tübingen

Poster Number: 88

USING INDEPENDENT COMPONENT ANALYSIS TO REMOVE EYE ARTIFACTS FROM HIGH DENSITY (256 CHANNEL) EEG RECORDINGS: METHODS AND RESULTS

Lawrence L. Greischar, Kevin D. Springborn, Alexander J. Shackman, and Richard J. Davidson, University of Wisconsin

Poster Number: 89

NEURAL MECHANISMS UNDERLYING CONTROL OF A BRAIN-COMPUTER-INTERFACE (BCI): SIMULTANEOUS RECORDING OF BOLD-RESPONSE AND EEG

Thilo Hinterberger, Barbara Wilhelm, Ralf Veit, Nikolaus Weiskopf, University of Tübingen; Navin Lal, MPI for Biological Cybernetics; and Niels Birbaumer, University of Tübingen

Poster Number: 90

HOMO HOMINI LUPUS I: BRAIN REGIONS INVOLVED IN OFFENDER AND VICTIM BEHAVIOR

Martin Lotze, Ralf Veit, and Niels Birbaumer, Inst. Med. Psychol. Behav. Neurobiol.

Poster Number: 91

HOMO HOMINI LUPUS II: BRAIN REGIONS INVOLVED IN CLASSICAL AVERSIVE CONDITIONING IN PSYCHOPATHS AND SOCIAL PHOBICS: A REPLICATION

Niels Birbaumer, University of Tübingen; Christopher J. Patrick, University of Minnesota; Ralf Veit, Martin Lotze, University of Tübingen; Christiane Hermann, and Herta Flor, University of Heidelberg

Poster Number: 92

MILD STRESS-INDUCED CORTISOL ELEVATIONS ARE RELATED TO MEMORY FACILITATION

Heather C. Abercrombie, Nicole S. Speck, Roxanne M. Monticelli, Daren C. Jackson, and Anand Lakshmanan, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Poster Number: 93

AFFECTIVE STARTLE MODULATION IN CHILDREN: THE ROLE OF TEMPERAMENT IN TWO PARADIGMS

Mark H. McManis, University of Texas Health Science Center; Jerome Kagan, Nancy S. Snidman, and Sue A. Woodward, Harvard University

Poster Number: 94

BRAIN MECHANISMS OF EMOTION: MAGNETIC SOURCE IMAGING OF AFFECTIVE PICTURE PERCEPTION

Mark H. McManis, Andrew C. Papanicolaou, Eduardo M. Castillo, and Trustin Clear, University of Texas Health Science Center

Poster Number: 95

SACCADIC PERFORMANCE IN QUESTIONNAIRE-IDENTIFIED SCHIZOTYPES OVER TIME

Diane C. Gooding, Heather B. Shea, and Christie W. Matts, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Poster Number: 96

MOTIVATIONAL INFLUENCES ON THE STIMULUS-PRECEDING NEGATIVITY AND THE LOSS-RELATED MEDIAL FRONTAL NEGATIVITY

Hiroaki Masaki, Shigeki Takeuchi, Waseda University; William J. Gehring, University of Michigan; Noriyoshi Takasawa, Edogawa University; and Katuo Yamazaki, Waseda University

Poster Number: 97

HERITABILITY OF FRONTAL ERPS RELATED TO INHIBITORY CONTROL OF ACTION: A TWIN STUDY

Andrey P. Anokhin, Andrew C. Heath, and Erin Myers, Washington University School of Medicine

Poster Number: 98

EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE AND AUTONOMIC SELF-PERCEPTION: EMOTIONAL ABILITIES ARE RELATED TO VISCERAL ACUITY

Tamera R. Schneider, Joseph B. Lyons, and Maria Williams, Wright State University

Poster Number: 99

IT'S ABOUT TIME: GETTING TEMPORAL INFORMATION
OUT OF THE HEMODYNAMIC RESPONSE

*Judith M. Ford, Yale University; Matthew B. Johnson,
Susan L. Whitfield, Stanford University; and Daniel H.
Mathalon, Yale University*

Poster Number: 101

AUTOMATIC PROCESSING OF ALCOHOL-RELATED
VISUAL CUES IN ALCOHOLISM: ERP AND FMRI DATA

Elsa Daurignac, John H. Krystal, and Daniel H. Mathalon, Yale University

Poster Number: 100

AUDITORY P300 REDUCTION IN THE SCHIZOPHRENIA
PRODROME

*Daniel H. Mathalon, Scott W. Woods, Tandy J. Miller, Judith
M. Ford, and Thomas H. McGlashan, Yale University*
